EDITORIAL FLINGS

Scientists may call me crazy,
But I tell you, fellow-men
It is helpful to be lazy
In the springtime, now and then.

Paris girl had a little wine
She got it from a stranger;
The watchful doctors still declare
To say she's out of danger.

One great difficulty that must be overcome by the new radio investigators is convincing the listener that he has got the right number.

Of course two families shouldn't be expected to live in the same house, considering that it is about all that one family can do.

As a middle-aged pedestrian the janitor of this column would greatly prefer the mid-Victorian days to these tin Elizabethan days when its unsafe to try to be safe from the speed demons.

A Louisville paper's discussion of how far feminine drapery should come below the knees depends largely upon the question as to where the rolled-down stocking proposes to leave off.

Says the crusty old Paris bachelor: "Every time I see one of these young flappers perambulating the streets I am reminded of nothing so much as the thought they should be placarded: 'Fresh Paint!'"

We would advise the Paris sports who contemplate attending the Lexington, Louisville and Latonia races to buy round trip tickets, otherwise they may have to walk home.

It is the sweet spirit of love that makes a dog smell good to a small boy. When he reaches the Mary Garden extract period, life is all work, anxiety, jealousy and expense. So there's something in the devotion of a boy to his dog, after all.

We are again reminded of the statement made by the Old Philosopher of a few years ago that water does more damage than whisky when we contemplate the 75,000 destitute and homeless people of the South on account of the floods in the Mississippi River.

It is claimed that the books of the Commissioner of Agriculture will show that during the month of February the Burley Association sold tobacco nine cents a pound higher than the independent houses. This is the solar plexus to the growers who stayed out to profit at their brother growers' expense.

The Elizabethtown News says: "Now comes May tripping in through clover knee deep with flowers in her hair, and a bucket of red ripe berries in her hand, and the smile of spring upon her lips."

Yes, and the mud and rain of April are upon her feet and her little head is full of cold contracted by tripping through the clover, and the flowers in her hair are wilting because of the cold weather, and her little knees are wet with the rains that have slopped over from April, and—oh, well, May is in a devil of a fix generally.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Paris People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But if you find 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles may follow;

That dropsy or Bright's disease may be the fatal end—

You will be glad to know the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Paris citizen.

Mrs. A. T. Alexander, 720 Vine street, says: "A few years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble and for a time I was unable to do my housework because of the severe pains across the center of my back. Many a night I couldn't get a wink of sleep on account of the misery in my back. My feet and ankles would swell so badly that I would have to wear large bedroom slippers. I had pains in the top and through the back of my head, too. As soon as I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, I got relief and I am pleased to recommend them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Alexander had. Foster-McLburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"WAS DISCOURTESY INTENDED?"

Under the above caption, The Kentucky Kernel, official publication of the University of Kentucky, takes a whack at a condition of things that happens very frequently at the Grand Opera House. Regarding alleged disorder at the recent production of "The Thirteenth Chair" by the Strollers Dramatic Club at the Paris Grand, the paper says, editorially:

"The Kernel regrets to call attention to the apparent discourtesies offered to Strollers in a certain Central Kentucky town on the occasion of the presentation of 'The Thirteenth Chair,' the annual play of that excellent organization. In this instance during an impressive dark scene of the play numerous persons behaving in a way so wholly unbecoming to well bred folk, that the Kernel prefers to believe that they mistook the dark scene rather for a failure of lights and that their agitation was born of the fear that the play might be marred. It is, however, uncomprehensible to us that such conduct as cat-calling, throwing of paper wads, peanut hulls, during a most impressive part of the great Vellier play, could have been done by persons who were jealous of their own reputation for good conduct."

"Students who gave this wonderful play and even produced it in its entirety, have been widely complimented for their remarkable work by discriminating auditors and they appreciate these compliments as they regret the undignified action of a number of persons who perhaps did not catch the fine spirit of the drama."

"The Kernel knows, however, that those who were guilty of discourtesies here complained of were not the representative people of that community in which the Strollers gave the initial performance of 'The Thirteenth Chair.'"

CASTS FOR SCOTTI OPERA

The famous opera La Boheme, by Giacomo Puccini, will be the offering of the Scotti Opera Company for the matinee instead of Carmen as first announced. This change was necessitated in order that certain singers have a rest between appearances.

With the beautiful opera La Boheme the well-known cast will be: Orville Harrold, Louis D'Angelo, Paolo Ananias, Marie Sundelius, Sante Mandelli, Alfredo Gandolfi, Italo Picchi, Paolo Ananias, Mary Mellich, Carlo Marino.

In the presentation of L'Oracolo and Pagliacci for the evening performances the cast for L'Oracolo will be: Antonio Scotti, Italo Picchi, Louis D'Angelo, Armand Toketyan, Clara Burns, Francesca Peralta, Henrietta Wakefield, Giordano Paltrinieri.

The cast for Pagliacci will be: Anna Rosalie, Salazar, Renato Zanelli, Giordano Paltrinieri, Alferdo Gandolfi.

Gennaro Papi will conduct the three operas.

Tickets are now on sale at the Lexington College of Music. Season tickets are sold for the two operas at a reduction in price.

A special price is also offered to students and teachers for the matinee when tickets are purchased in blocks of twenty or more.

"Biddy" Has Long Pedigree.

The chicken, common barnyard fowl, has a pedigree that has been traced back to 700 B. C., when chickens were fluttering about homes in southern Asia. Dr. Clark Wissler, noted anthropologist, says. Within a comparatively short time, considering lack of transportation and the great distance, chickens appeared in Africa, Doctor Wissler says. Next they appeared in Egypt, according to traces found, and after this they became scattered until they were more or less common throughout the world.

DYE FADED SWEATER SKIRT, DRAPERIES IN DIAMOND DYES

Every "Diamond Dyes" package tells how to dye or tint any worn, faded garment or drapery a new rich color that will not streak, spot, fade or run. Perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Just tell the druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods. For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to their old, shabby waists, skirts, dresses, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything!

USERS OF ADDING MACHINES

BLUE BLOOD AND RED

Prof. Amandus Johnson, of the University of Pennsylvania, is in Stockholm searching records to find the original emigrants from Sweden to the early American colonies. He reports a thrilling race among descendants of the early Delaware colonies for the distinction of having as ancestors the particular Swedes who landed first. Natively the professor declares that those families which can prove their descent from the immigrants of the sixteenth century will form a new American aristocracy of a vastly exclusive nature.

This contest for ancestral honors has all the material for a Gilbert and Sullivan opera. It has also the sad spectacle of people enriched by a new world turning to the meanest aspect of the old one. One of the chief motives which inspired the Revolutionary fathers was the uprooting of that particular phase of social idiocy. They did uproot it, and turned their backs upon it, and that is one of our best traditions.

The emigrant of to-day is an honorable ancestor of to-morrow as any emigrant of colonial days. The aristocracy of Pennsylvania, whose blue blood is derived chiefly from good gold dollars, had much better spend those dollars to employ professors for any of innumerable more useful things they can do than digging up emigration records to exalt the vanity of their employers.
